Speedy recovery

Past President Larry Stanford's dad, John Stanford has suffered a stroke and is now recovering at Cornerstone.

Note from Zack Steen (our web page man)

I have finally got everything worked out on ticket selling on the web site. Click the web site here www.corinthkiwanis.org and then click on the red box on the side with the Gospel Singing logo. You'll see a drop down window on the right side where $15 and $25 tickets can be purchased using Paypal or a credit card/debit card.

If anyone has any questions or requests, please let me know.

Special notice

Jane Childs, Pat Ray, Judy Glenn and others are trying to collect the small flower vases (the kind you always get and throw away). Please help these Kiwanians with their project.

Chile Cook off

Another fun Saturday was had at the Depot with both the Chile Cook-off and the Green Market. At least 3 Kiwanians were responsible for the outstanding success of both of these events—Steve Knight, Kristy White and Zack Steen. There may have been other Kiwanians there and working but I was so busy judging chile that I didn't see them. It was a fun event(s). If you didn't come out, it was your loss. Those three could have used more of us helping them.

Pancakes

The pancake breakfast will be May 1st—Steve Knight is chairing this event and has passed out tickets and a volunteer work sheet. If you missed either please contact Steve. He needs all the help we can muster.

Leon Frazier Gospel Singing and Talent Contest

Coming up in June. There will be more to follow on this high powered event.
