Email from Earl Owens

For the first time since joining Kiwanis, I will miss cooking pancakes this year.

I will be in Dallas accepting JC Penney's prestigious "Chairman's Award"

For being in the top 10% of JC Penney Stores last year.

Please insure my replacement cook is qualified to flip pancakes with flair.

(Earl is the local Manager of our JC Penney's Store and while he don't look like much, he can really cook—not only pancakes ,but at our night Golf Tournament. Congratulations on this honor, Earl. You are a great example for other Kiwanians!)

Kristy White announced at our last meeting that she would be going to Jackson next week and would like to load her car with donated supplies for the victims of last week's tornados at and around Yazoo City. If you have any of the items on her list below, please bring them to Tuesday's meeting. Here's Kristy's email:

Bill - I have spoken to my friend and colleague in Yazoo City and she gave me a list of items she needs. They are as follows: clothing (all sizes for men, women and children); all toiletries; paper products; baby food; and diapers. Should anyone like to bring items to Kiwanis on Tuesday, I will be happy to take them to Jackson on Wednesday. She and I will be attending a meeting down there together. Remember - I have a Jetta and will pack everything in my backseat and trunk. Let's see if we can fill them up! -Kristy White
